

QUÃDIS BARRICA

Quadis, is an ancient name for the city of Cadiz and given to this red wine from the Cadiz region in the south west of Spain. Made from select red grapes, this wine has a very dark ruby colour with complex full aromas and smooth long flavour.

The grapes are grown on the famous chalky Albariza soil in Barbadillo's 'Gibalbin' vineyard where we have the perfect grape growing conditions with its Mediterranean climate and Atlantic influence. A state of the art vinification plant set within the same vineyard ensures the wine's outstanding quality.
